

A photograph of a busy supermarket checkout area. In the foreground, a young man with light brown hair looks towards the camera. Behind him, a queue of people is waiting at checkout counters. A blue sign with white text 'FAST TRACK' is visible above the counters, circled in red. To the right, another sign says 'SLIPP KØ I KASSA'. The left side of the image shows shelves stocked with various products, including Coca-Cola cans. The overall scene is dimly lit, typical of a supermarket interior.
